

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, the people of Oklahoma recognize that an understanding of geospatial concepts is crucial to the wise use of our natural resources, continued economic prosperity, and the general health of our citizens and communities, and related technologies have an important role in the future growth and security of our great state, including the use, management, and exchange of data from Geographic Information Systems (GIS); and

Whereas, computerized Geographic Information System (GIS) technology provides an efficient and effective means for managing geographic information; and

Whereas, there is a need to promote GIS awareness, education, and technical training among various groups to most appropriately and wisely use this rapidly developing technology; and

Whereas, there is a need to coordinate these efforts to eliminate duplication, reduce costs, develop standards, and facilitate the sharing and interchange of GIS data, methods, and knowledge; and

Whereas, extensive efforts are underway in various public and private agencies and organizations throughout Oklahoma to develop, incorporate, and utilize GIS Technology; and

Whereas, the state of Oklahoma, through the Geographic Information Council (OGIC), promotes cooperation and sharing of data between state, federal and local agencies; and

Whereas, GIS is an important part of geography awareness; and

Whereas, the state of Oklahoma is committed to expanding GIS to the general public in order to showcase real-world applications with GIS; and

Whereas, GIS Day at the Capitol will be held on March 27, 2014, which represents the 20th anniversary of the event;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim March 27, 2014 as in the state of Oklahoma.

"GIS Day at the Capitol"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

ATTEST:

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 30th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and fourteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and sixth year.

Chris Berger
SECRETARY OF STATE

Mary Fallin
GOVERNOR